REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

As was so artfully set forth by Applicant's Representative in the reply dated 07 June 2006, the art rejections set forth for claim 1 and those claims which depend from it in the Office Action dated 10 January 2006 were indeed a house of cards built without a logical basis. Those rejections were removed as of the Office Action dated 11 August 2006.

Despite the perceived closeness of the prior art of record, neither the Examiner nor his supervisor were able to logically comprise a rejection for these claims based on the prior art of record, despite a considerable investment in time reviewing the prior art of record.

In the prior art of record there is no logical teaching for moving the detachable panel from those locations disclosed in the prior art (at either end of the package, either proximate to the closure or opposite it, see for instance 5,682,730, 2004/0252914, 5,851,071, and 6,536,951) to the position set forth in the present claims at an end of the package while the closure is disposed at a side edge. For these bags to operate as intended, one of ordinary skill in the art would not be motivated to move the closure/detachable panel relative to each other, as by doing so would inhibit the ability of the user (e.g. deli counter employee, etc) to open the bag and fill it while the bag is suspended from hooks as is intended. 5,682,730 provides the best evidence of this fact.

Similarly, for the references (e.g. 6,712,510, 4,948,267, 5,129,734 and 5,067,822) that do have the closure on the side edge and the suspension hole adjacent a top edge, there is no sufficient teaching (i.e. one actually based on logic) to modify these references by providing a detachable panel within which the suspension hole is disposed.

Accordingly, absent the teachings necessary to modify the references so as to meet the claims, the claims are allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
